Bitboard (BB) coin is developed on the Polygon as a 100% Decentralized AI Blockchain, and is currently developing its own network called 'Tnet'. Development is ongoing according to the roadmap, and the Testnet is currently in operation. The Bitboard ranking chart, where anyone can easily vote for their favorite star at anytime, provides instant finality, high TPS that meets real-world use cases, and reduces the cost of running blockchain applications, thereby reducing the entry barrier for end users, which solves the problems of existing blockchains.

• Block creation and confirmation time of 2.3 seconds.

• 65,000 transactions per second.

• Low gas price, only 1/100 of Ethereum.

• Runs zkEVM (Tnet zkEVM) and operates as a Solidity contract.

BB is a space for stars and fans, and a portal to online star spaces around the world where various services already exist. BB Portal (categories) BitBoard.in

1. Bitboard coins can be used to decorate the stars' space.
2. A space of passion and affection. Fandom is a space where we gather passion and affection for the stars or works we love. Fans support and encourage each other, and their love and passion are a great strength. Fandoms create a sense of community and belonging, and provide opportunities to connect with new friends.
3. As a space for discovering creativity, fandom is an important element that brings out creation and creativity. Fans demonstrate their creative talents by creating their own works, expanding stories, reinterpreting characters, and more. This provides new inspiration and possibilities for works and artists.

All 100% of the accumulated coins are communal assets for coin holders and are used exclusively for their benefit.

Maximum airdrop = 100% per month

- If the star you voted for ascends from the 100th to the 1st place within a month during the voting period, indicating a rise of 100 places in the top 100 list, you will receive an extra 100% of the coins you used for the vote as a reward. Refunds are usually issued two weeks after the voting period concludes. However, if the star's ranking declines compared to the time of the refund request, the entire airdrop coin will be credited to the BB pool, and only the principal amount will be refunded.

- If you rise to 99th rank, you will receive a 99% monthly airdrop, and if you rise to 90th rank, you will receive an 90% airdrop.

Regular airdrop = 10% per year

- If the star you voted for wins first place, 10% per year for the period it is maintained. If you are in second place, you will receive an airdrop of 9.5% per year, and if you are in third place, you will receive an airdrop of 9% per year.

- For example, if the star you voted for ranked 10th (5%) for 1 month, 5th place (8%) for 3 weeks, and 1st place (10%) for 1 month, receive an airdrop of the number of coins voted * 5/12+number of coins * of 8 * 3/52+number of coins * 10/12.

- However, the refund is always received 14 days (2 weeks) from the date of application for refund, and if the rank is lower than the date of application at the time of refund, the entire airdrop will be credited to the BB pool and only the principal will be refunded.
