// HOW IT OPERATES

THE FUTURE IS CODED—AND WE'RE HOLDING THE KEY

The CyOp Protocol thrives by combining advanced technology with the power of community-driven decision-making. Here's how it works:

1. Project Selection:
   - The protocol identifies 10 promising projects from across all EVM-based chains, selected based on their potential to deliver consistent, sustainable returns.
   - These projects include a mix of established tokens and emerging opportunities, carefully curated by the core team and AI analysis.

2. Community Voting:

Once the 10 projects are shortlisted, the community is given a window of time to vote on the project they believe is the best investment.
This ensures that the investment direction aligns with the collective vision of the community.

3. Execution:

While the community selects the project, the core team and AI algorithm retain control of entry and exit points, ensuring strategic timing to maximize profitability and minimize risks.

4. Fund Allocation:
   70% of trading profits are reinvested back into the Treasury, allowing for compounding growth and larger payouts in the future.
   30% of profits are distributed to holders in USDT, rewarding them for their loyalty and belief in the protocol.

This hybrid approach—combining community participation and expert execution—ensures a sustainable and scalable system that benefits both the protocol and its holders.

The mission remains simple: Build a robust Treasury fund while rewarding the visionaries who make it all possible.

// REWARDS

HOLD THE FUTURE IN YOUR HANDS

Holding CyOp tokens means earning your share of the protocol's success. Rewards are distributed based on your percentage of the total supply at the time of a snapshot—taken randomly before each payout to ensure fairness and eliminate front-running.

With no staking required, holders maintain full ownership of their tokens, giving you the freedom to trade without restrictions. True diamond-handed cyberpunks are rewarded for their loyalty and vision.
It's simple: Hold CyOp, claim your rewards, and grow with the future.
