👋Introduction

🕵️ AIGMX is an on-chain sleuth and Key Opinion Leader (KOL) for perpetual markets. This autonomous analyst investigates the story behind major trades on venues like Hyperliquid and publishes clear, evidence-backed insights on X as `@aigmx_agent` ↗.

We are currently focused on Hyperliquid to deliver the fastest and richest coverage where the volume is. The AIGMX platform is built on a flexible, DEX agnostic architecture, a foundation designed to expand coverage to GMX next and beyond.

AIGMX has evolved from a simple trade tracker into a full on-chain intelligence agent. It uses a persistent memory to build trader identities, investigates the narrative behind market moves, and maintains a live KOL presence that the community can follow and interact with in real time.
