2. Prospects and advantages

2.1 Decentralized game platform

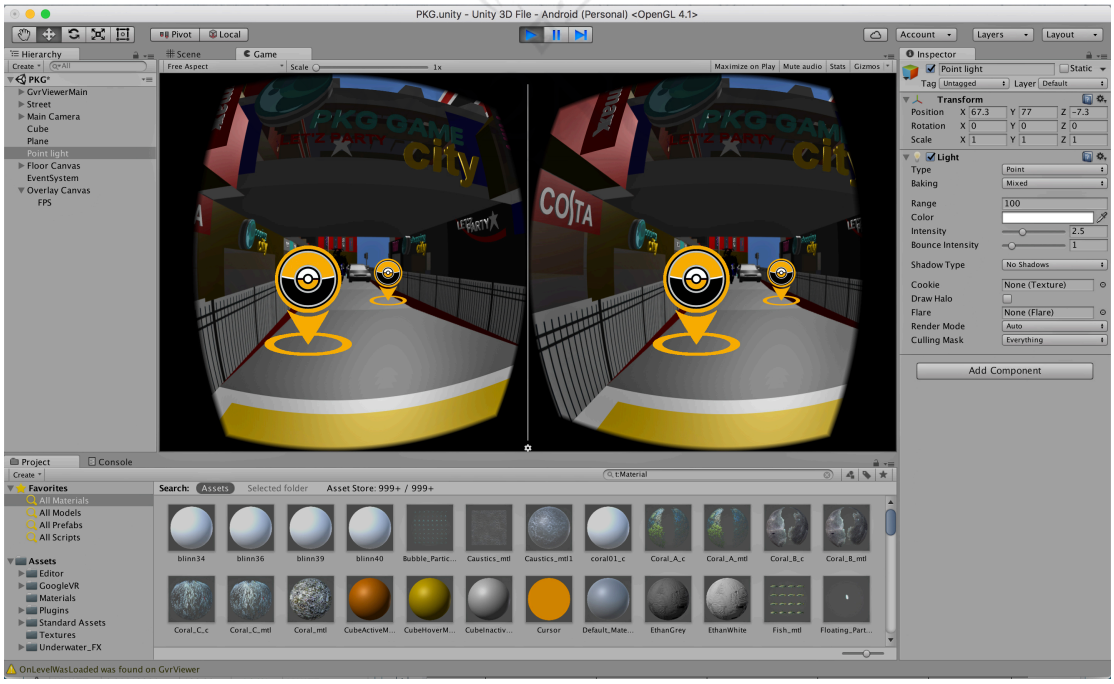

PKG is decentralized game platform operating on Blockchain. Using digital signatures on blockchain-based data that allows access only when authorized by multiple people could regulate the availability and maintain the privacy of gamers. In addition, a community of industry, including game developers, game players, and game distributors, could be part of the overall blockchain, reducing fraud und redundancy in gaming ecosyestem.

2.2 Virtual Reality and Augmented Reality Technology

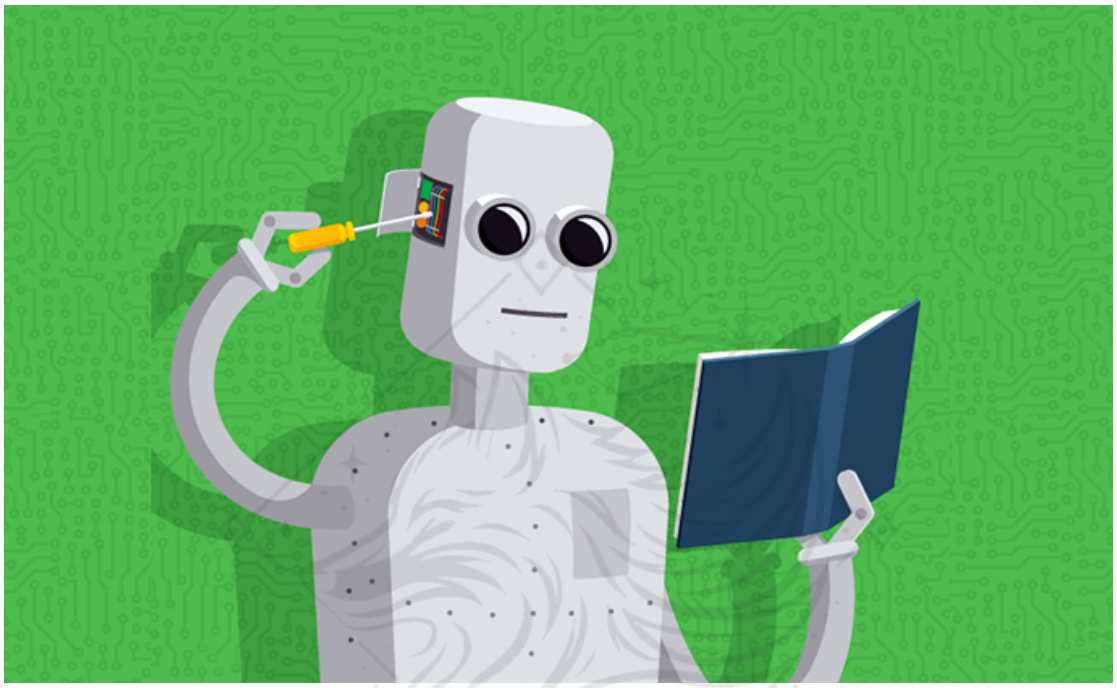

Virtual reality is capable of providing players with a whole new — and much improved— gaming experience all around. When people put on a VR headset, be it the Oculus Rift or the HTC Vive for example; they are completely immersed into their own gaming world. The distinction between playing the game and being in the game means that no longer will somebody be sat in front of a television with a pad, jerking and tapping their hands to control their characters; there will be much more of a connection between game and player, perhaps a more “fluid” approach to it all.

2.3 Machine Learning

By using machine learning tools, we provide the game developers more possibility of making games that can match the player's ability by altering tactics and strategy, rather than by improving the ability of opponents. Game develop would be more logical, reasonable and sustainable than before.

2.4 Huge Industry

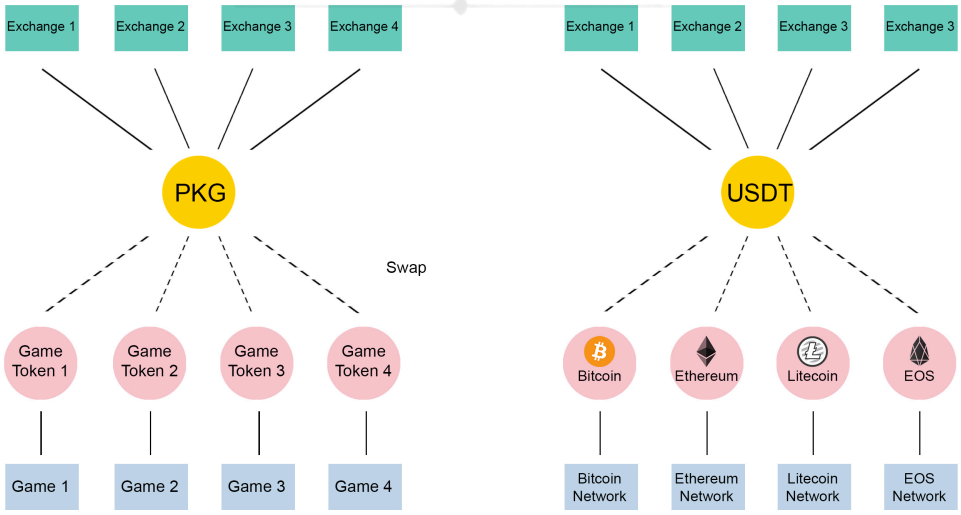

The global gaming industry is one of the fastest growing segments worldwide. 2.2 billion gamers across the globe are expected to generate $108.9 billion in game revenues in 2017. The Steam platform, owned by Valve, controls a significant percentage of the PC gaming market — 50 percent to 70 percent of all PC game downloads happen on Steam, selling titles from bigger firms such as EA and Activision, as well as Valve's own games. Steam currently takes 30% – 50% of digital game sales from game developers.The gaming industry is flourishing and the cryptocurrency market reveals exponential growth. PKG is the explosive combination of the two.
