Introducing CODEX

Welcome to CODEX—a revolutionary approach to AI agents, built in the spirit of Sandwatch's innovative, community-driven environment. By going far beyond text-based interactions, CODEX is redefining what it means to be an AI agent. Think of it as a powerhouse that merges advanced technology, self-awareness, and creative flair to deliver an immersive AI experience in real time

The capabilities of CODEX stem from the AI research and development by the Sandwatch Team, pushing far beyond what's currently possible in the AI agent space.

Pioneering with SANDY

$SANDY is the first Video AI Agent powered by Sandwatch CODEX.

Core Features

- Video Generation:
  - Automated Video Pipeline: Fast, cost-efficient, and equipped with safeguards to minimize AI hallucinations.

Outlook:

CODEX is not just an AI agent framework or a showcase of technical possibilities—it's about unlocking potential and focusing on real-world applications. This is what other AI agents lack right now. Our goal is to create a tool that focuses on the entertainment industry, bringing brands and projects to life while helping creators market their visions to new audiences. Sandy is an experiment aimed at shaping the future of content and communities through interactive storytelling, shows, and movies.

Our mission is to create a tool that brings your project to life, helps you market it effectively, and supports you every step of the way in making your vision a reality.

CRYP2NOVA

CODEX will soon roll out to other brands within the Sandwatch Universe and will also be available publicly for your own token, project, show, or community.
