SPIKE IS A laid-back food-loving dinosaur meme THAT NOW LIVES ON ETHEREUM

CRYP2NOVA

Illustrated by Matt Furie when he was just five years old. This goofy, awkward, and friendly dinosaur is going to be the next household name in crypto.

THE ORIGINAL MATT FURIE MEME

I’m sort of like the OG of OGs, the meme of memes, and the eldest brother in the Boys Club.

Matt will never forget his first creation, and neither will you. I’m your buddy in the crypto space, drawn into existence with a smile on my face. Always ready with a joke, smile, helping hand, and some brotherly advice!

Be sure to find me on ETH at 0x1984 and feel safe with your big bro as:

the token liquidity is burned

the contract is renounced forever and there is a fixed supply with 0% tax.

Snag a high-five and join our growing community. In Spike we trust!

You always remember your firsts — first car, first coin, first 100x. Spike could be your next big first. He's a fun-loving dinosaur trying to fit in as a kid in the '80s, straight from Matt Furie's imagination.
