Velt Token Burning Mechanism

Progressive Utility, Permanent Scarcity

As each utility within the Veltrixaio ecosystem goes live - from Veltrixa.ai to Veltrixa Capital, Veltrixa Raffle, Web Gaming, and the Crypto Debit Card — the VELT Token enters a new phase of deflationary dynamics.

With every subscription, trade, gameplay action, raffle entry, or debit card transaction, a fixed portion of VELT tokens are automatically burned - permanently removed from circulation on-chain.

The Result?

- Decreasing token supply
- Increasing demand
- Strengthened long-term value

VELT is not just a utility token — it's a self-burning, value-growing digital asset engineered for sustainability.

5. Tokenomics Explanation

The VELT token is designed to power every facet of the Veltrixa ecosystem, creating a sustainable, circular economy that rewards users, secures the protocol, and drives long-term value. Below is an explanation of each allocation category

- Airdrop (5%): Allocated to early users who complete onboarding tasks and participate in the referral structure. This strategy boosts user growth, viral reach, and grassroots community development.
- Burn Reserve (20%): Reserved to be permanently burned via delationary mechanics (e.g., transaction fees, staking exits). This helps reduce total supply over time and increase token scarcity, which can contribute to value appreciation.
- Product & Development (10%): Used to fund development of new features, system integrations, backend engineering, security audits, and AI infrastructure improvements.
- Staking Rewards (25%): Allocated for users who lock up VELT tokens in staking contracts. This incentivizes holding and network stability, with lexible or ixed lock durations and yield-sharing..
- Advisor Allocation (7%): Reserved for key advisors contributing strategic guidance, legal structuring, DeFi innovations, and investor relations. Subject to vesting periods to ensure aligned interests.
- Marketing & Strategic Partnerships (8%): Budget for PR, inluencer campaigns, cross platform promotions, DeFi collaborations, and adoption drives across global regions. - Liquidity Reserve (5%): Provided to bootstrap liquidity pools across centralized and decentralized exchanges, ensuring smooth trading experience and price stability.
- Founders & Core Team (10%): Reserved for the long-term core contributors building Veltrixa. These tokens are vested over 5 years to ensure commitment and aligned vision.
- Emergency Reserve (5%): Allocated for unplanned operational costs, regulatory adjustments, or platform-critical ixes to ensure business continuity.
- IEO Allocation (2%) and Pre-Sale Allocation (3%): Designated for early fundraising rounds and exchange-led offerings to provide initial market liquidity and bring strategic investors onboard.
