About Yay!

With the mission of “Building Community with Science,” nanameue operates Yay!, the virtual world of interconnected interests. Since January 2020, Yay! has been providing a place everyone can belong to more than 9 million+ users. Its users connect based on shared interests, manage their smaller communities, and enjoy chatting on group calls while playing their favorite video games. With the circle feature, currently over 100K+ community groups are created.

Now, Yay! is launching a staking campaign to build a strong foundation towards the development of a web3 ecosystem.
