Trade your favourite assets with uncompromising security

Disclaimer: Zeta Markets has ceased operating as of May 2025.

Zeta Markets was a decentralised perpetual futures exchange built on the Solana L1. It was a pioneer in on-chain orderbook exchanges facilitating over $15bn in volume. Zeta Markets has since been discontinued and stopped operations. Bullet is a new network purpose-build for trading which extends many of things that Zeta achieved read more about Bullet here ↗ or visit the Bullet FAQs ↗.

Our Thesis:

> Defi is full of slow, clunky and expensive user experiences. We're changing that. Taking the best experiences of centralized trading apps and transferring them on-chain to bring users the benefit of transparency, self-custody, decentralization and community ownership.
